

POST CITY TORONTO

PEOPLE & NEWS THINGS TO DO TORONTO RESTAURANTS KATES 100 FASHION BEST OF TORONTO NEIGHBOURHOODS

NEIGHBOURHOOD BUSINESS

Royal Toast a kosher fast-food restaurant has opened up shop on Clark Avenue in the Thornhill neighbourhood. The restaurant, with a dining area as well as takeout, specializes in casual fare such as sandwiches, hot dogs and crepes (1450 Clark Ave., Unit 24, 905-597-2262).

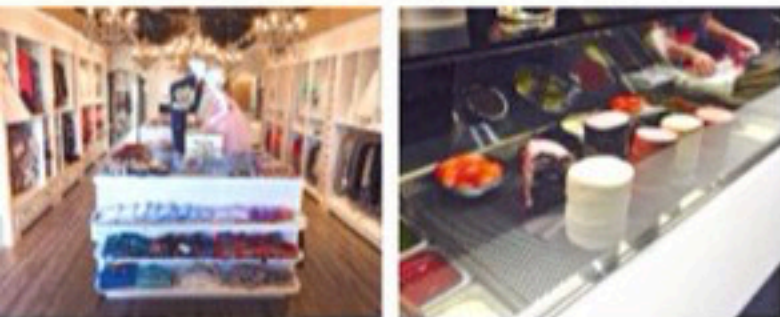

Shaye Collezioni, specializing in children's clothing and carrying a number of unique brands from Paris, is open for business on Rutherford Road in Vaughan. This new Vaughan location is connected to the Trendy Bambini operation in Richmond Hill and also offers the same custom-made dresses at both locations (3175 Rutherford Rd., Unit 22, 905-738-9642).

Walking on a Cloud a popular shoe store will be opening up shop in the Promenade mall in March on the upper level next to Andene. Walking on a Cloud is a Canadian business owned by Paul Vella and specializing in the finest brands of women's and men's shoes (1 Promenade Cir., 905-764-0020). New mummies and daddies take note, Uni-Love Baby, a store for all your baby care needs, is now open on Yonge Street in Thornhill. There is a wide range of products on offer with a special focus on those that are eco-friendly and organic (7181 Yonge St., 905-597-8286).

Two local women, graduates of Westmount Collegiate Institute in Thornhill, have opened up a new business after both having had successful careers as cheerleaders for the Toronto Raptors and the Toronto Argonauts. Nicole Pollock and Jorie Brown opened up Cotton Candy Event Staffing in 2014 (Cottoncandyevents.com).

Lobo Iberico is a new restaurant opening in Newmarket and specializing in tapas, paella and other traditional Spanish dishes. The restaurant is owned and operated by Trish King along with chef Carlos Tomas. The restaurant is slated to open Valentine's Day. Lobo Iberico also offers up "paella pans," to feed two, four or six people and are available to purchase to take home and prepare in home ovens (17766 Leslie St., 416-523-4776).

Clockwise from top: Nicole Pollock and Jorie Brown from Cotton Candy Event Staffing, a new spot for tasty kosher sammies is Royal Toast, and Shaye Collezioni for stylish kids' clothing

POST CITY MAGAZINES